I would like to begin by saying that Sis. Alma was a God send for me (Mrs. Reeves) as she would call me. I am Mr. Wayne Reeves wife. And back a few years ago when he was in the Nursing Home, she took wonderful care of him, and she had a big heart for that kinda work. It takes someone special to do what she did. However I know he would give her a run for the money so to speak. He had Alzheimer's, yes that terrible disease. And she never knew from day to day what she would be doing, she might be helping him work on a tractor 🚜 or be planting the garden or even going hunting or fishing. LOL 😂 But she would always have the patience and would just get on in there and do what ever was on his mind to do that day. And Wayne just loved her so much they were really good Buddies. And I didn't have to worry about him when I knew Ms. Alma was working with him, I knew that she was taking very good care of him. And I just loved Sis. Alma. She was an awesome lady. I know there was a lots of days that she didn't feel up to doing what ever she was having to do, but you never knew it because she never complained. She was always so jolly and had that great big smile on her face. I am so thankful to have had her in our lives. And just want all of you family members to know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers. 🙏🙏🙏🙏❤️❤️❤️❤️ RIP Ms. Alma, your up there singing and dancing with Angels. Save me a seat at the table and give Wayne a kiss and a Hug for. In Loving Memory Mrs. Jan Reeves!!

❤️❤️❤️
