“ First I want to give condolences to the family. My prayers are with you all.

My most fondest memories of Annette is us sitting on the porch of 21 Hilliary Ave, in Morristown. Annette loved to go to Atlantic City. She and I would take a ride down just to get away. She loved to shop. She & I would shop till we dropped. I can remember her cooking her famous stuffing on Thanksgiving. We, (Jean, P-nut & I) would keep sneaking in the dish. She would yell & say yall fools is going to eat up the stuffing from everyone else. So when she made that dish she'd have to make a 2nd pan. Annette Loved everyone. She was there for me when I first arrived in Morristown. The old house on Hilliary Ave holds many memories. It was truly a family house. We all lived there. We fought, argued but for the most part we had Love. Annette was truly a wonderful sister-in law. She had Deja to look for me on Facebook. We talked and laughed as we went down memory lane. She talked about visiting me & we going to AC. I told her sure we can go. She really loved pulling that one hand bandit, as we called the slot machine. Annette Loved her family, & life. We all love living but Annette Lived her life differently. She was so full of life, laughter & love. If she didn't care for you she had no problem letting you know it. She and my brother traveled places & did so many things in their life together. Mo'Town was never the same when they moved to Alabama. The back yard cook outs, the Eastern Star, & Mason parties... yes I miss those days. Annette Lowe I will always be grateful for the things you've done for me. Rest in Peace Love you always & Forever your sister-in law Faye (Beverly Redfearn)
