I remember the entire Cooper family, when they first moved to Troy, Al. Into the Hurlbert St low rentals homes. It was a pleasure to see the smiles on their faces when they were approaching me. She told me often how pretty she thought I was, and she said it with a smile 😊 on her face. The "SMILE" it let me know that she was real with her statement about me. I haven't lived in Troy for years... but I would often look for her whenever I was visiting family in Troy. NOW, I know that she's not there. To the entire family members and friends, I pray blessings from God upon each of you, and it's in Jesus Christ name Amen, and Amen 🙏👍😊

“ I last saw Annie Laura, about 6 months ago at Piggly Wiggly Grocery store on Three Notch St. I was glad to see her because it had been a long time. She was smiling & said “hey mama”. If you really knew her, she was a kind person. I gave her a few dollars & she gave me a hug. You never know when you will have a good last memory of someone, that was a good last memory.
