“ I have so many great memories. One night I was over tino house when he stayed in the trailer on garden basket rd. I was lean over the rail on the porch and flip right over it and tino asked me was I OK but we both bust out laughing. We was laughing to hard my stomach was hurting. That wasn't the first time I fell and it seem like he was always there to laugh with me.. Another time when he was racing someone on his car and I was in there. When he got done I said you crazy for doing that and he look at me and said I am not the only one you didn't get out. We shared another laugh..

“ Growing up with Tino has been a joy. He is one of the funniest people I know. He enjoyed life. I remember when we where young and he use to scare us by chasing up with horse poop. I can laugh about that now. He use to love stepping with his Qbrothers and we loved watching him. I have so many fond memories of Tino and he will live on in my thoughts and memories. I love you cousin and I can just see you Now Stepping your way three those Heaven gates.
