“ With a heavy heart, please accept my deepest condolences on Carla passing. Remembering her captive smile, intellect and genuine service. Her memory (Legacy) continues on through the many lives she has touched, helped and made better by the gift of her life. May the peace of God that surpass all understanding surround your grieving hearts and may she rest in peace!!! With Love ~Amie

“ My heart has been extremely heavy the last few days, but today I smiled as I thought of the many times (28 years) I touch the back of your hair. Wow....you never slapped me. You just smiled! You had the neatest and tightest hair style in Alabama. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Sincerely, Carl White (South Carolina)

“ Carla,
I will always keep you in my heart. We had so many stories to share about our families everyday. Your smile and your laugh always made everything right even when we were having bad days on Chisholm Street. Rest in Peace Sweet Lady.

“ Carla, words cannot express how much you are missed. I will cherish ALL of the conversations & laughs we shared! When it came to your job, you have helped so many people out of some of the most difficult situations & you always did it with a smile. You were one of the kindest people I've ever known. We are all here on borrowed time and God was ready for you to return back to him. I know that I will see you again one day & that brings me great JOY. Love & ((hugs)) to you! You will never be forgotten.....
