“ Our condolences to the Owens Family.
I don't have words to describe how you
all must be feeling.
I can only say Weeping May endure for a night ,but Joy will come in the morning.
Charlie as I knew him was a good man.
He was my husband co-worker for years and they had known each other before work.
He will be greatly miss he was family .
It was as I known him very well from hearing my husband talk about their relationship at work.
And I only met him a couple of times.
God Bless his family especially his wife and children's.
May they find comfort in his memories
And overall in the Lord Jesus .
Rest well Charlie your work is done here .
Its our race to run now.

“ I have known Charlie since he was a baby, he grew up within a mile of where I live. He is one of my very best friends throughout the years. We had a kindred in spirit and nothing he ever asked me or he asked me to do that we did not carry through it. I will miss Charlie . Bernard Richburg
