“ I remembered David from high school. His brother Henry and I are high school classmates. David used to drive the transit bus and I talked to him on the bus. I am sending my condolences to his family. I love you all.

“ The family of Mr. H.P. Flowers (Glenda, Jason Ryan and Justin RaShaad) express our sincere "heartfelt sympathy and prayers" to Mrs. Sandra and the entire family. We meet David during the early years of our son (TSU) years and they developed a close relation, based on their belief in God and their love for music. Mr. David Everett's music talent touched so many on so many levels, spiritually, emotionally, and physically. He fulfilled a call and a charge to GLORIFY GOD and he will be missed. May God comfort and give you all strength as you cherish the many family memories.
- Sincerely

“ He was always smiling no matter how bad things got. He was a living testimony showing those he knew, not just telling them, of his faith in his God. He never seemed to get down. Always joking and praising God. And oh, the talent he had. He will be missed by all those his life ever crossed. To his family, my deepest sympathies!! I love you all! #forveroneofmyPCHSbabies 🍷🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏
