“ Demontrez , I have loved you since your grand entrance into this world having a asthma attack, on January 27, 1994 . I have watched you fall down while learning to walk, cry with you in your first day of daycare, looking a mess when you lost your first tooth, graduated from kindergarten, singing for the first time in the 2nd grade black history program and the boys and girls club, attempt to play football, graduating from 6th grade and going on to high middle school and meeting your lil brother “Jamie James” and realizing that you wanted to presue music as a career , fussing at you cause you were not doing 100% in high school, to singing at different church’s , to graduating from high school and I really thought you made me proud then but boy was I wrong , you had lots more to give to make me proud , Next phase of life , loving to be in church and not being a bench warmer always willing to do whatever asked, experiencing hardaches of life up and down, to getting your first job at Wendy’s definite making mom proud, being dedicated to work and moving up to leadership, watching you perform weekly and years at one of the best HBC in the land “The Alabama State University” Marching Hornet, which you loved , so proud moment, watching you travel all over the world marching and singing the gossip in church no matter what, getting up on Sunday morning if you were in town to get your praise and singing on, I enjoyed watching how your love for God grew and pushing me all the time when I had bad days, but when you graduated my heart ❤️ melted cause you had done it and done it with honers... so proud of you always son. You Demontrez was the joy of my life, you made your mom live and push cause I had you watching . I don’t know what I am going to do without you . I already miss your smiling have and your singing voice .. I love you so much and my heart is so so can’t describe it but just know everyday loving you made my life better so I just don’t anymore but I know I will love love always until I can’t no more Demontrez “Musicking “ J . Mahone..

“ Demontrez had a charismatic personality that made him a natural teacher. Children were drawn to him like a magnet. I spent several years watching him grow as a music teacher. He will be missed and fondly remembered. I am thankful for the time I was able to spend with this amazing young man. Great memories that will live on! ”

“ “Faith is to believe what you do not see, the reward of this faith is to see what you believe.” ”

Everyday, in every encounter with Demontrez, you knew he saw the best in all of us and it made us all strive to be better. Tullibody Music Building retains the echoes of his joy, his laughter, his smile, and his big heart. He left his mark on everyone that he touched in the Music program and we are better for knowing and loving him.

May you find peace in God’s grace and your loving memories of Demontrez.

“ I played D&D with him every week. He had a real joy and zest for life and reveling in working with others for mutual gaming delight and frustrating the Dungeon Master. He also served as the DM to bring joy and fun to the lives of other people. If you needed help, he was there to help. Farewell my buddy, see you later.
