“ I am have fond memories of my third cousin Mrs. Munningham. She was always smiling and she asked about my family. I will truly miss her smile.

“ My most heartfelt condolences to the Munningham family and my thoughts and prayers are with you all. She was Such a wonderful woman who loved and cared for me and my family dearly. When I think of Mrs. Munningham, I remember the warm hugs and sweet, precious love she gave every Sunday morning. There was one question she would always ask me that reminded me of my heart's deepest desire and though she won't be around to see it, I take comfort in knowing that she is in a cloud of witnesses, with our Heavenly Father, cheering us on. May she always remain in your hearts and may the joy she brings in precious memories outlive the grief you feel in this moment. May the Holy Spirit comfort you and give you peace during this time. With love, Karla Hollis
