“ *To the Family of the Late Bishop Dr. Willie C. Scott, Your loss is shared by many who knew and loved Bishop. Our caring thoughts are with you much more than words can express. Bishop was a Visionary, Shepherd, Father, Brother, Son and Friend. Of all the many hats he wore the most "Precious" and important hat He now wears is a Crown. During this time and the days to come, may you feel the strength of God, as we hold you close in prayer. With Deepest Sympathy †

“Brother Bishop Willie”, I always took in every word during your sermons because you explained the scriptures so well that I could understand and I could never get enough of listening to you share the word of God. You were my driving force to want to be a better person because you was such an awesome example for us all to go by. I love you “Brother Bishop Willie”.
