

Sis. Emma McGuire

July 12, 1936 - July 18, 2020

Mrs. Emma L. McGuire passed away on July 16, 2020, leaving a lifelong legacy of devotion to her family and community. Mrs. Emma was born July 12, 1936 in Pike County, Alabama. She is survived by her six children: James "Sonny" (Mary) McGuire, Johnny James McGuire, Brenda McGuire-Allen, Tony McGuire, Sheila (Jerry) McGuire-Richards and Febra McGuire. Nine grandchildren and four great grands.

Mrs. Emma was a graduate of Academy Street High in Troy, AL. She was married to Mr. John Walter McGuire for 68 years. Mrs. Emma joined Shady Grove Missionary Baptist Church at an early age where she served as a devoted member. Mrs. McGuire also retired from Troy City School System. Mrs. McGuire was a member of The Order of the Eastern Star Arnold Chapter 340 where she held the office of Associate Matron. She also volunteered as a Pink Lady at Troy Regional Medical Center (Edge) for many years. Mrs. Emma was a wonderful wife and mother, always thoughtful, cheerful, and generous. Her family's memories of this singularly accomplished and loving lady will reside forevermore in their hearts.

Rev. Charles Sankey of Shady Grove Baptist Church in Troy will officiate a private graveside service for the family only.
