“ Mrs. Rollins was my social studies' teacher and choir director. She was always kind and nice to me, and I learned a lot from her. Though I had not seen her in years, I am saddened by her death. Rest in peace Mrs. Rollins.

“ Winston and siblings I am truly sorry for the passing of your mother. May thoughts and prayers are with each of you. ”

“Angela, Mark, Winston, my whole childhood is permeated with wonderful memories of your mother and grandmother, Mrs. Guice. Your mother used to play badminton in the streets with the kids in the middle of the street. She laughed a lot. Her tone of voice had and resonated a contagious, loving sound. She dedicated her life to taking care of her wonderful mother, Mo Guice. We used to sing a song in your backyard called, "Bumblebee Keep-a-Running" with kids from the low line. Mo Guice used to ring the Bethel Baptist Church bell and at 12 o'clock everyday and we kids would go up there with her. Your mother always cautioned her with great love to take care of us kids. I never saw a daughter love and care for her mother more than your mother did for her mother. She gave a good example: "You kids followed in her footsteps. You took care of her." Mother Guice used to pray everyday on her knees and I remember getting on my knees and praying too when I was there. Your Mother is now safely home with Jesus and her mother. What a wonderful thought. Imagine the joy and the joy bells that are ringing. Joy bells are ringing. Joy bells are ringing. All over Heaven, another soldier has come home. The Heavenly choir is singing songs that we have not heard. I know that we are living in the last minutes of the last days. Don't be sad! If you follow John 3:3, "There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: 2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. 3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. 4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. 9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? 10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? 13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: 15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. 21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. Jesus is not a man that he would lie.

You will see her soon. Carlisle Family, Alyce, Mac, Paul, Teen, and Lo.

Angela, Mark, and Winston, I/Betty learned so much from your mother, not to mention how to play the piano. We have such fond memories of your mother and the times we spent at your home with her and all of you. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers. Please grieve in your own way and time. The Carter Family, Ann, Robert, Bettye, Anthony and Haroldine.

“ Although, no words can help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in our thoughts and prayers. We are deeply saddened by your loss. May God give you the peace that you seek during this dark time in your life. I ask that God strengthen you and family and bring you comfort during this time as she will always be remembered! No one ever is prepared for losing their love one, but take comfort in knowing that she is now resting in the arms of our Lord!

“ My Favorite teacher from Pike County High School. She would make sure you knew your assignment for the class and would respond with the comment "I Dare You" if you gave a far to the left 'wrong' answer!!!!

She provided me with not only 'book' knowledge, but also self-worth and determination to succeed in life. Her guidance played a major role with me after high school, and talks with her during the time I attended college in Montgomery.

She was a gem to me and I will never forget the love she showed me. I was proud to have her as my teacher and mentor.

Angela, Mark, and Winston you all have my sincere condolences on the passing of your mother. You all are in my prayers.
