“ First Impressions Can Be Lasting. I Guess That's Why, As Children, We Were Encouraged To Make A Good First Impressions. Flora "Sis" Surely Did That. I Recall, When My Sister Ruby And I Were Little Girl's, And She, Along With Her Older Sister's; Pearl And Viola Were Teenager's. When We Would Visit Them In Their Home, They ALWAYS Took The Time To Talk, Engage With Us, Making Us Feel So Loved. They Would Paint Our Little Nails, And Made Us Feel So Special. It Didn't Stop There, As We Grew Up, The Laughter, Love And Kindness Never Faded. She Loved People, She Loved Her Family, During Joy, Sorrow, Gathering. She Was There With That Big Beautiful Smile, Just As I Remember From Childhood. She Left A First And Lasting Impression Of; Love, Kindness, Generosity, Caring And Compassion On Me And Others. I'm Going To Miss You "Sis," Flora. My Prayers For Strength And Comfort For Your Family Will Forever Be Lifted Up To Our Father In Heaven Who Cares 🙏 Rest Well, My Beloved Cousin.

“ You're never far away, because the memories will be forever in our ❤️.
We had some good times and great laughs at Bethel, serving dinner after church with the Cowart family. Those will be treasured memories, a few of many. May you rest peacefully and know that you will forever be alive in our hearts. Love to you Flora (Sis). Dear, First cousin. Love and Blessings to you Olivia and Brandon. ❤️ 🙏

“ We've missed Mrs Flora's presence for a long time. Her flamboyant personality and laughter was very welcomed. She always referred to my handsome son as her boyfriend and would give him a whole sweet potato pie after the church dinner clean up. He accepted each one with much appreciation. He later told Mrs Flora Daddy ate some of his pie too. Next time she gave my son the sweet potato pie she said share with your Daddy! And Yes, those pies were just as sweet as her! Family be encouraged of a life lived and blessed... She is loved & she loved in return 🙏
