“ To the entire Berry family, please know that your, Allen, Jones, Still and Reese families, are sadden at the passing of Fredrick. We have known him since his birth, and had the pleasure of watching him grow from a gangly boy, to a grown man, of imposing stature. He possessed a God given talent to draw and paint the people and scene's, with a realistic view. In his young adult years, it was a pleasure to listen to his views on life and his dreams. If ever, there was a Son, or Brother who was loved completely and unconditionally, it was Fredrick. He knew that. Our families, join with the Berry family, and all of the loved ones, friends and acquaintances of Fredrick, thanking God for the gift of his life. These lyrics from a Sacred Hymn, sums up Fredrick's and all of our lives.

"And when our days, are past, and we from time remove, oh may we in thy bosom rest, the bosom of thy love, so death will soon disrobe us all of what we here possess." Berry Family, we share your grief, and will continue to pray for your comfort, strength and peace 🙏 Rest Well Fredrick 🙏
