Just today I learned that Herman outran me to the Father's house. My family was blessed to have Herman caring for Sam & Sara Murphree for a long period of time. Herman was a blessing to many others as he did what God had called him to do. I'm praying for Catherine and the other family members during these difficult days.

“ *My Condolences to the Whaley Family.
I am sadden to learn of Herman passing.
I known him from working with him years ago.
He was the same all the time ,a overall great man.
I don't have to tell you all this because you already know. I will say this cherish the time and love you all shared with him.
And look to the promise that we all will be together again with God .
He will be our father and we will be his children's.
Jesus will see you through this dark time in life.
And the light of Jesus will brighten your way .
Weeping will endure for a night .
Joy will come in the morning.
God be with you all.*
