“ To the family Mr. Woods was a very fine man who worked hard to make sure that all men is created equal. I met him since i been in the NAACP on the state level and i found him to be a friend of mine and that he was i will always remember him as my friend. when we went to Baltimore Maryland he ask me to let him have my jacket because he was cold on the bus and i let keep it the whole time we were gone and when we got back we had a big laugh he said Rev.Dale here is your jacket. with a[BIG SMILE].
