“ To the David Andrews family. So very sorry for the homegoing of someone so cherished and loved. I did not know Mrs. Andrews for a long period of time, but what I did observe was a lady of character, dignity, intelligence and a spiritual heart. May her soul rest in peace. My nieces, Clintonnia Jones and LaTisher Hall and I tried to show our Christianity as much as we could. Please note that if we can be of help, just let us know, we will do our best. May God give you the strength to endure the difficult days ahead. Prayer will ease the pain one day at a time. God bless you and keep you in His care. Dessiree Pickett.

“ Mrs. Janice will be greatly missed, especially her beautiful smile. She would come in the church with a smile from ear to ear and it would just make my day. I thank God that she is in no more pain and will be a smiling angel in that beautiful garden in Heaven.
