“ He held a special place in God’s heart. I don’t know the full story, but I know Quan was better than the situation. He made mention of just wanting a better life for his family. He was super talented in music and I know he could’ve been big with the right production. We often would have deep spiritual conversations and he would listen to me as an elder. I wish I could’ve been his friend today and maybe talked him out of whatever happened. Prayers and love to his family!
