“ When I was living at home, I'd oftentimes see him at church, and we'd talk. I would make it my business to greet him with a hug. He'd often ask me how was the city I was living in treating me (at the time, I was coming from Atlanta to visit). He'd tell me he was proud of the man I was becoming. Last time I saw him was at my sister, Jennifer's funeral. As always, we'd hug and talk. He was one of my heroes. He'll remain that. ❤️🙏

“ I shall never forget when my UNIQUE father Mr. Homer Vincent Givens passed October 15, 2015 to, you and your darling beautiful angel of a wife came to our home and sat down with my mother and I and we laughter and shared precious memories of my father for we are just like family. Then May 27, 2018 when my UNIQUE and best earthly friend my darling mother passed Mrs. Sweetie Mae Givens to join my father in GOD'S CARE and mansion far away beyond the sky where HEAVEN resides. The two of you sat beside me on the sofa and embraced me with so much love and concern and we again shared more precious memories although it was hard for the three of us to laugh but love surrounded the room and it was deeply felt within my heart. Then the three of us Joined hands outside with me in the middle and we talked about how beautiful HEAVEN must be and what strong compassionate and LOVING parents I had. That memory of you and your beautiful wife will dwell deep in my heart forever. Now, I can only imagine you Mr. John embracing HEAVEN standing before THE MASTER hearing Him say WELL DONE THY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT!" Thank you Mr. and Mrs. Pennington for your sincere encouragement. Mrs. Ellouise I pray this encouragement from me is felt and strengthens you as y'all deeply encouraged me and left me with precious memories. I know you will carry his legacy on. Love, Wanda Givens
