

Airman Ke'Lani Montrice Thomas

February 7, 1996 - May 4, 2015

Airman First Class Ke'Lani (Ke'Ke) Thomas was born on February 7, 1996 to Carlisa Carlisle and Brian Thomas in Troy, Alabama. She passed away on May 4, 2015 at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas.

Airman First Class Ke'Lani Thomas graduated with honors from Pike County High School in May 2014. She ranked as one of the top four in her class. As an honored high school graduate she also received an Associate's Degree in Applied Science in Business Administration from Enterprise State Community College. While actively involved in high school she participated in many different organizations.

Ke'Lani was very outgoing and never met a stranger in her short time on this earth. She also loved her family and friends. She had a fascination of constantly taking "Selfies" of herself every ten to fifteen minutes depending on how she was feeling and posting them to her favorite chat sites.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Annie Margaret Carlisle.

Leaving to cherish her loving memories are: her mother, Carlisa Carlisle; her father, Brian A. Thomas; her sisters, Brianna Thomas, and Alexis Baxter; her brother, Michael Baxter; grandparents, Extra & Martha S. Thomas, and Willie Carlisle and step-grandmother, Angie Carlisle; aunts, Nikita L. Thomas, and Imani Carlisle; uncles, Willie F. Carlisle and SrA Jason R. Thomas; a special friend, Jay Hampton; best friends, Nigel Marshall, Kali Stanton, Marquette Nickson, and Emily Parker; a god daughter, Aizha Allen, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. We loved her dearly and will truly miss her.

Friends and Family Visitation will be Friday, May 15, 2015, from 10:00 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Celebration of Life will be Saturday, May 16, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. Committal Services will follow at Community Cemetery in Brundidge, AL.
