“ Mrs. Mary Emma Snead was a life-long friend to me and my family. She loved a good laugh; she had an infectious smile. Condolences to her family, especially her sons Michael, Shelby and Jeff, may your treasured memories sustain you and God comfort you and your families during this difficult journey. Rest well my friend.

“ I remember Mrs. Mary Emma Sneed as a longtime, faithful church member of Morning Star Baptist Church. She loved working with the youth, and she was always full of joy. She blessed others for the Lord with that smile. Family, focus on all of those beautiful memories during this time of bereavement. I pray that the Lord will strengthen, encourage, and keep you all.

Love,
