“ When the lonely moments rise up, may you think of those sweet memories that can bring happiness to your heart? Even though Brother Rayford Jackson is laid to rest, I know there are times when you need to feel the presence of Jesus letting you know He still cares. My thought and prayers continue to be with you. Dr. (Evangelist) Ethel H. Taylor - Ramer, Alabama

“ I will miss you calling me and the first words out your mouth was Always,,,, where or how's Aunt Ruby Jewel than you will tell me about the people that take care of you and how you love your place . As a little girl you would chase us and the time I jumped over a fence and you said I had on red the that bull was coming towards me. I jumped that fence and you Laughed so hard. I Loved you so much and I know God has you next to him Rest on my dear Cousin Jackie
