“ *October 10, 2021
My sister Mae went home to be with the Lord.
Only 67 years old. A very bright and intelligent lady. She was such a giving person, she was also a realist. I called her today, I will call her again I will miss our conversation. I only wanted to tell her this is not goodbye just a different hello. Rest in paradise:

“ Grace under fire and poise under pressure. She led by example through teaching, worshipping and giving. She embodied the Proverbs 31 woman. On behalf of the Finance Committee and Trustees of the Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church, you are loved and will be greatly missed.

“ Condolences the family. Mae was a beautiful spirit and such a caring person. Even though we grew up together, she was always the mother type to us always showing us right from wrong taking us little ones under wings. We shall miss that wonderful quiet spirit and smile. Thanks Mae for showing us how to love and treat people. We will love you always and the beautiful memories you have left.

“ 35 lovely years of friendship. My spiritual sister, my friend to the end. My heart is broken into so many pieces. I will never have another friend as precious to me as you Rosa! Words are not adequate to express my grief but I will treasure the wonderful memories of our friendship and live in the hope of the day when we shall meet again on the other side. This not goodbye but farewell until we meet again.

Earth has no sorrow, Heaven cannot heal. To GOD be the Glory. Rosa, my sister friend. Not only did we worship together at the great PGBC, we raised our children together in the same neighborhood. I'll always cherish our friendship.... Blessings and condolences to Wallace and family. May GOD comfort you all knowing you'll definitely see her again. We love you all. Bernard, Donna & family “ Mae, though we are heartbroken by your passing, we thank the Lord for sending you our way. The precious San Francisco memories are a reminder of your strength, warmth, and character. As stated in the Book of James (KJV), you were a hearer and doer of God's Word. Rest in peace, dear Sister.
