“ This goes to EVERYONE ..I PRAY WE’LL ALL BE READY FOR THE GOOD LORD RETURN. I’m not perfect but I believe in doing what’s right. Our parents taught us to treat people right. We all have faults in one way or another. It doesn’t matter who the world says about each and everyone one. Because God looks at the condition of the heart. Rod had a white bible in his car and that lets me know that he may not had been in church all the time but he knew God. That bible was his protection. My cousin Otis Suddith came to our home Saturday and he asked he could have it and I said YES OF COURSE. That bible passed on to someone else to read and have a closer relationship with God. I tell people NEVER judge a book by its cover. You never know the inside of a person or what’s in their heart. Rod was very kind but everyone knew not to rubb him the wrong way. He didn’t play about his family. I challenge you all to love more, love better. If you feel that something in your heart is not right then get it right. Be kind to people whether they’re white, black, rich or poor. Even if people don’t treat you right but still treat them right. That’s how we all can make it to heaven. The main people who you think won’t make it into heaven may be the very ones who will. Because when death is near two words could be the best and that’s (GOD FORGIVE ME) before you take your last breath. Just love right and do right. Do the best you can for your family. Be there for your friends and love one. I CHALLENGE EVERYONE WHO READ THIS AND PASS IT ON TO THE NEXT PERSON. It just may change their life into having a closer relationship with god Lord almighty. Again, I PRAY WE’LL ALL BE READY FOR HIS RETURN. I love each and everyone of you. For those who showed my brother love I thank you! I appreciate everyone’s kindness and remembering my brother. May the good Lord bless all of you with grace and mercy. WE LOVE YOU ROD ❤️

“ We were sixteen when we first met in high school in Algebra class. He was talented, handsome and patient. I'm grateful for Rod giving me our children and how he expressed to me just weeks ago, how proud he was of their successes. We will always love him. These photos remind me how merciful God is. The one of him sleeping peacefully when our children were babies is one of my favorites. Now remembering one of my favorite scriptures....James 4:14 KJV ...God bless every single one of us.

“ Rod, I’m sitting here at home and my tears are like a waterfall because I’m missing my little brother. It hurts...we said hi in the hallway Saturday morning but we never said goodbye. While I was at Shampekka’s funeral I had no idea that in a few hours before daylight on Sunday morning that you were leaving us. How could I have known that it would be goodbye? PSALM 23rd I’ll keep in my heart. I guess momma and daddy said “Rod we come back to get you”
