“ Selma, I will miss you dearly! I will hold the memories that we shared and talked about in my heart! I must say that we shared good times and plenty of laughter together! Instead of me being your Aunt and you my Nephew we were more like siblings! On the last day, as I visited you, I prayed selfishly that the Lord would keep you here, but the one moment I will always cherish, is when you turned your head towards me and opened your eyes and looked at me as I was praying and telling that I loved you and you to FIGHT for your life! I knew you that you had heard every word that I said! An empty space will always be in my heart as we grew up together, you taught me how to drive and you were always there for me with your “smurky laughter.” So my nephew, Rest In Peace until we meet again!

Selma Lee my classmate from 5th grade to graduation 🧑🎓 we had a lot of fun in school all of us trying to be very smart and tops in our classes. It was fun 🤝 I will always remember your laughter and you always trying to make us laugh. It s been so long since we seen each other . Some of us your classmates were praying 🙏 that we all would see each other at our 50 class reunion in July if we can still have it. We will light a candle for you. RIP classmate
