“ The Dragonfly Story

“In the bottom of an old pond lived some grubs who could not understand why none of their group ever came back after crawling up the stems of the lilies to the top of the water. They promised each other that the next one who was called to make the upward climb would return and tell what happened to him. Soon one of them felt an urgent impulse to seek the surface; he rested himself on the top of a lily pad and went through a glorious transformation, which made him a dragonfly with beautiful wings. In vain he tried to keep his promise. Flying back and forth over the pond, he peered down at his friends below. Then he realized that even if they could see him they would not recognize such a radiant creature as one of their number.

The fact that we cannot see our friends or communicate with them after the transformation, which we call death, is no proof that they cease to exist.”

Walter Dudley Cavert

“ My cousin was family, but also a presence that brought meaning into our lives. Though our hearts are heavy and the loss feels sudden and unfair, we are grateful for every moment we were blessed to share. We will carry your memory with us always. You are deeply loved, and you will never be forgotten.

“ Pekka and I had quite an interesting beginning to our journey, but we became such great friends. She was a force of nature to be sure. She definitely had a genuine heart, and always treated my boys like her own. We will always be grateful for her support and love. I also would like to say that I am praying for her amazing family. They are the sweetest people, especially that sweet Jaden who always calls me “Mama Leigh.” I love you all, and please keep God at the center of your life. He is our strength and comfort in these sad times. I could not have made it through the last year without that assurance! So, just know our Lord has Pekka in His arms now, and she is at peace. Rest well my friend, til we meet again! Love you all!!
