“ You will be truly missed! I remember when I first met you at Oak Grove gaming. You were so friendly and loving. You just don't know how much you had an impact on my life and the life of others. True definition of living life to the fullness and not having any regrets. Rest in peace my friend. Thank you for always being you and now I know you are resting and a better place. forever in my heart! My deepest condolences to the family and may God bring you comfort at this time.

“ Rodney!!! Man this is such a great loss! I remember when me and you met in orientation! U were so full of energy and so funny too! U told me u was from Alabama. You definitely brought such a positive presence no matter what! Always respectful and overprotective! Anytime we had a call u were there before we were checking out the scene lol! Always ready for whatever. And then u introduced me to your mother! Ms Martha!!! What a lady! I absolutely love her! Always there looking after her after working a whole shift! Would give u his last dollar!!! Always willing and always was helping even when u were in pain! Never complained and always saw the better even in situations that were bad! Skinny like Snoop and cool like him too! I'm honored to have been your Lead and become apart of ya casino family! And yes I saw momma the other night and showed her some love!!! Rest in Heaven Big Dawg! One of the realest and dopest people I ever met! Remember our inside joke! God Bless! May God grant you eternal peace!

“ Rodney was amazing. He would come by the coffee shop every morning and sing to me. He knew just how to make your day a little brighter. Around him, he made you smile from your heart. A true friend inside and outside of work. You are loved and will truly be missed.

Kameelia Thompson - July 23, 2025 at 01:37 PM

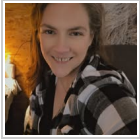

“ Rodney was such a fun person to work with at the casino. He always had a smile on his face and really genuinely cared about everyone around him. He will be missed.

“ My heart is shattered! I adored working with Terrance. Always loved when he would ask me to make some of my "Christmas crack" for him. He was one of the hard ones to say goodbye to when I parted from work. He always was down to protect me when we worked. You are going to be so missed!!!

Lena Pack - July 23, 2025 at 12:20 PM

“ This shook me. He was a great man. He was one of those genuinely kind people. He'd give the shirt off his back to help someone in need. You could always count on him for a smile on a bad day or a shoulder to cry on. He was an angel on this Earth who just received his real wings. I'm gonna miss you, dude and our conversations about life. Take your rest now and save me a seat.
