“ I remember growing up in Troy and walking home from school. Thelma would yell Hey Mavis. I would say Hey Auntee. Her reply would be " Mavis, I am your cousin and not your Aunt Gloria". It took me a minute but I finally was able to tell my aunt and second cousin apart. Thelma, you are gone from this earth;however, your love for your family and friends will live on. You were very dedicated to whatever you put your hand to. I am grateful that you left thus legacy, cousin.
