“ *Remembering Cousin Viola Brundidge
Viola was a soft spoken person,her smile said it all ! As an Educator,Motivator she brought sound advise to her students and young cousins, she instilled in us not to deferr our Dream's, we saw through her what hard work and determination could lead to Success!! We are so much better being Graced by Cousin Viola's presence in our lives, Job Well Done!! Rest In Heavenly Peace Cousin, Love Ruby & Lamar 💕*

“ To our family, though our heart's grieve at the reality of Viola's "Little Baby," passing, we find comfort in knowing that she lived a life, pleasing to God here on earth, and like a good soldier of our Father God, she lived and served him, and stayed on her watch until she was officially relieved of her duties here, and was discharged to journey to her Heavenly home, where she heard a voice, so sweet say, Welcome Home. Viola will be missed, for the love, kindness, caring, sharing and her gentle spirit. As a family, we were truly blessed by her presence, not so much by any noise that she made, (because she was not a loud person), but by the prayer's that she prayed and the life of Faith that she lived. She loved ALL of her family and friends and was loved in return. Rest well, Cousin Viola "Little Baby." Cares are past, you are home at last 🕊
