“ My Sincere Condolence Is Extended To The Family Of Mr. Willie D. Robinson. I First Met Willie D. In 1960, As I Began My Fifth Grade Year At Shellhorn/Ansley Elementary And High School. He Was Being Reared By His Grandmother, And Rode The School Bus That My Father Drove, The Same As Myself. I Remember Him Being An Intelligent Young Man, Kind, Friendly, Well Mannered And Shy. First Impressions Are Important. I Saw Him Randomly Over The Years, And Each Time, He Exhibited The Same Attributes, That I Remember From 5th Grade. He Was A Kind And Gentle Spirit. May The Family Find Peace And Comfort Knowing That A Good Hearted, Man Of Peace Walked Among Them. Rest In Peace, Willie D.
