“ Bree, it's strange how time passes. Years can go by without hearing someone's voice, and yet the memories of you still feel close.

I keep coming back to those memories in college. The way you would lean in with that half smile before telling a story, already knowing it would make everyone laugh or the way you'd affectionately tease and share stories from your life.

You were always so kind to everyone you met. No one ever felt like they were on the outside around you. You made people feel like they belonged, and you meant it.

It's hard to accept that you're gone. It doesn't feel real, but what does feel real is the mark you left, and your absence it leaves behind.

I'm so grateful to know during our years in College. I hope that you knew just how far the love and care you gave people reached.

Thank you for the kindness you always showed me and thank you for making the world a better and kinder place.

“ We are deeply saddened by your loss and are keeping your entire family in our hearts during this incredibly difficult time. There are no words that can truly ease the pain, but please know you are surrounded by love.

God needed another rose for His garden, and Bree was truly a phenomenal woman. Her light, love, and spirit will never be forgotten, and she will be deeply missed.

To Buffie, Arpi, and Jordan — we are here for you, today and always. Lean on us whenever you need strength, comfort, or support.

With all our love, prayers, strength, and heartfelt condolences,
